Pantry Best Practices

Capacity Building
Operating a pantry on a budget
Marketing your Agency
Healthy Pantry Network
Healthy Pantry Network

Rachel Stankiewitch, Healthy Pantry Network Manager
What is a Healthy Pantry?

• Maximizes Opportunities to Distribute Nutritious Food

Foods to Encourage (F2E)
“Nudges”

- Practices Nudging
  Making the Healthy Choice the Easy Choice
  Nutrition, cooking and health education
Training

- Participates in Training
  Staff/volunteers
Resources and Referrals

• Collaborates for Clients

  Refers clients to community resources and services

  Referral System from/to Health Center
Benefits

- Community Enrichment
- FREE on-site training
- FREE workshops from Rollins College
- FREE healthy food boxes
- Eligibility to receive FREE capacity building equipment
Contact Information

Rachel Stankiewitch
Healthy Pantry Network Coordinator Manager
rstankiewitch@feedhopenow.org
407-514-1072

Darlene Vega
Healthy Pantry Network Coordinator
dvega@feedhopenow.org
407-514-1075
Operating a Pantry on a budget
United Brethren In Christ
Volusia County
Learning to Market yourself
Provision Packs
Volusia County
Thank You!